

Senior HSS Management to Participate in OSHA VPP Coordinator Visit!

The Office of Health, Safety and Security (HSS) Voluntary Protection Program (VPP) Committee is very pleased to announce that William Eckroade, Deputy Chief for Operations, will welcome Peter Brown, Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) VPP Coordinator, during his familiarization visit with the VPP Committee on January 28. Additionally, Mr. Eckroade anticipates being able to attend the full VPP presentation and ensuing discussions. Said Mr. Eckroade:

"HSS management fully supports the goal of safety and health excellence as embodied by the OSHA VPP. As we pursue VPP, we know that our Safety and Health program will evolve and improve. The upcoming informational meeting with our OSHA representative will help us better understand how to succeed in this effort. We look forward to the commitment and involvement of all managers, supervisors, and employees in accomplishing the goal of VPP STAR status."

You can obtain additional information on Peter Brown's visit by speaking to the VPP Committee member in your office.
